

Children in the Law Library

To help provide a scholarly environment that supports quiet study and research, children in the library must be accompanied by a supervising adult. Unaccompanied minors who need access to Federal depository materials should visit the Information Desk for assistance.

Adopted February 19, 2010; revised January 31, 2015