

New Faculty Lunch/Discussions:

We will have one lunch/discussion each month for new faculty. The topics will vary, based on the concerns or issues of interest of those in attendance. In addition, in the October session some time will be spent discussing classroom assessment techniques, which can help you gauge how things are going at around the mid-point of the semester.

The sessions will be held via Zoom, accessed through the New Faculty Pandemic Planning Course in which you all are enrolled. .

If you have classes that go to 12:15, you are welcome to come late.

The dates are:
