

Interfaith @ Drake

A Multicultural, Multireligious Organization

What We Do

Interfaith meets biweekly to connect students who are interested in religion, both personally or academically. We discuss religious topics, host guest speakers from diverse local communities, celebrate each other's faith holidays, and visit sites like mosques, temples, churches, and more!

Who We Are

Students of all faith backgrounds - or no faith at all - are members of Interfaith. Many of our students are practicing members of faith groups, while others simply like learning about religion.

Do you worship together? No! Interfaith does not endorse any specific religious belief or faith.

I'm not religious; can I join? Of course! Many of our members do not belong to religious communities.

How can I join? Contact us!
