Both solo and chamber ensembles are encouraged to audition, after consulting with their teacher/coach. Students may audition for the Honors recital competition on two different instruments in the same competition but may only be accepted as a winner for one solo performance. Students may be accepted as a winner as both solo and ensemble performer. Previous winners of the Music Department Honors Recital Competition may compete in subsequent years.
- Soloists are responsible for accompanist fees for the audition as outlined by the Drake University Department of Music. Pianist fees for the February performance are covered by the department.
- For the recital, you may only perform music that is listed in your registration. You may change this information up until the registration deadline (Oct. 18th) for the competition. Judges will select recital repertoire based on the audition: the February 2, 2024 performance must be the same repertoire with which you audition.
- Judges are Drake music faculty and area professional musicians. The criterion for selection to the Student Honors Recital is a performance of outstanding quality.
- Selected soloists and chamber ensembles will be featured on the Drake Music Department Student Honors Recital scheduled for Friday, February 2, 2024 at 7:30 PM on the Jordan Stage-Sheslow Auditorium. You must be able to perform on this concert to audition.
