

Application Instructions

Domestic Student LLM Application

*Separate application procedures are required of internationally educated students. Please see below.

Applicants to Drake Law School's LLM program must include the following items:

1. Drake Law School LLM application.
2. Deadline. The priority application deadline for domestic students is April 1st. We have a rolling admission process; therefore, applications will continue to be accepted after this date.
3. Official law school transcripts.
4. Statement of Purpose. Please explain why you wish to pursue an LLM and how the degree will further your career plans in 2 pages or less. You are also encouraged to include any information you consider to be useful in the admission evaluation process.
5. At least one letter of recommendation is required, and up to three letters will be accepted. Letters should address an applicant's academic performance and potential.

International Student LLM Application

For the purpose of admission, an international student is defined as a student who received their law degree outside the United States or will be in the United States on a non-immigrant visa. This specifically refers to the Student (F) and Exchange Visitor (J) visas.

International applicants are required to submit the following items:

1. Completed Drake Law School LLM application.
2. Deadline. The priority application deadline is April 1st for the fall semester. We have a rolling admission process; therefore, applications will continue to be accepted after this date.
3. Statement of Purpose. Please explain why you wish to pursue an LLM and how the degree will further your career plans in 2 pages or less. You are also encouraged to include any information you consider to be useful in the admission evaluation process.
4. An LSAC LLM Credential Assembly Service report is required for applicants who are defined as an international student. Transcripts and TOEFL or IELTS scores must be sent to the LSAC LLM Credential Assembly Service to be evaluated by the International Transcript Authentication and Evaluation Service. All services are offered only online at LSAC.org.
5. TOEFL or IELTS scores are required for applicants whose native language is not English. An official copy of the test report must be sent by the testing service directly to LSAC. These scores will be included in the foreign credential assembly service at LSAC.
6. At least one letter of recommendation is required, and up to three letters will be accepted. Letters should address an applicant's academic performance and potential. Letters of recommendation may be sent to the LLM Credential Assembly Service.

Bar Admission Statement:

Admission to Drake Law School does not guarantee admission to the bar of any state. In addition to a bar examination, there are character, fitness, and other qualifications for admission to the bar in every U.S. jurisdiction. Applicants are encouraged to determine the requirements for any jurisdiction in which they intend to seek admission by contacting the jurisdiction. Addresses for all relevant agencies are available through the National Conference of Bar Examiners.

Non-discrimination Policy:

The principles of equal access and equal opportunity require that all interactions within the University be free from invidious discrimination. Drake University therefore prohibits discrimination based upon race, color, national origin, creed, religion, age, disability, sex, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, veteran status or any characteristic protected by law in its educational programs and activities, admissions, or employment. Inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies may be directed to the Title IX Coordinator, 316 Old Main, 2507 University Ave., Des Moines, IA 50311, (515)271-4956, titleix@drake.edu or the Executive Director, Human Resources, 319 Old Main, 2507 University Avenue, Des Moines, IA 50311, (515)271-4804, drakehr@drake.edu.

Certification

Students of Drake Law School bear a special responsibility to maintain high ethical standards for the profession. Accordingly, it is expected that each student will scrupulously regard the rights of others and will observe high ethical standards of both personal and professional conduct. The Drake Law School Honor Code is concerned with discipline in a professional society, with special emphasis on examinations, law school and library procedures, preservation of property, and relationships with fellow students, faculty and staff. Violations of the Honor Code are brought before the Honor Board, a panel of elected student justices.

The Honor Code is not the exclusive source of professional standards and student disciplinary rules and procedures. The Law School reserves the right to establish, modify and enforce academic and professional standards governing satisfactory performance of students and their conduct while enrolled at Drake Law School. All Drake law students are bound by the Honor Code as adopted by the Law School student body and faculty.

By submitting the application electronically, I agree to be bound by the Honor Code as it is adopted by the Law School student body and the Law School faculty. I certify that the information contained herein and in any supplemental documents is true, correct, complete to the best of my knowledge and is my own work. I shall promptly notify law school officials in the event that anything happens prior to my enrollment at Drake Law School that would change the information contained in this application or its supporting documents. I understand that the obligation to report changes extends to the period of time during my law school enrollment as well. I understand that any false or misleading statement, omission of subsequent or material facts, or incomplete application may be the basis of denial of admission, revocation of an offer of admission, or dismissal from law school if already enrolled.
