As we start the new semester, advising has become crucial to help students with their current plans for Fall 2020 classes. Students will be working in small cohorts, following personalized learning opportunities. If you have students from your department who are interested in leading a cohort, please contact me. Students from taking courses when regularly offered will be taken into consideration.

Current plans for Fall 2020 classes include a blend of in-person and online or hybrid classes. To request funds for attending virtual professional conferences and for materials for teaching blended and/or virtual classes, please fill out the form available here. For more information, please refer to the COVID-19 Prevention Training.

Students, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act provided for a one-time distribution to eligible students. Whenever applicable, please direct students to apply for financial aid, loans, grants, scholarships, or other resources available to them.
