Section Two: Drake Curriculum – First-Year Seminar (FYS) & Areas of Inquiry (AOI's)

Area 1: FYS & AOIs

Each Area in your degree audit has an individual heading [A] with a description of the area and requirements. The Met column displays if you have fulfilled the requirements for the area [B]. Under the heading the requirements for the area are listed in detail. The left side of the row [C] displays the course requirements and the right side of the row [D] displays which course was used to fulfill the requirements.

There are AOI's covered by your major requirements. These AOI's are listed with the specific course and course number [C] (Life and Physical Science, Quantitative, Information Literacy, Values and Ethics, Engaged Citizen, and Critical Thinking). AOI's not covered by the curriculum are listed without a course or course number [E]. (Artistic Experience, Global & Cultural Understanding, Historical Foundations (2 courses), and Written Communication). For more information about the AOI requirements visit <http://www.drake.edu/dc>.
