

GETTING DRESSED

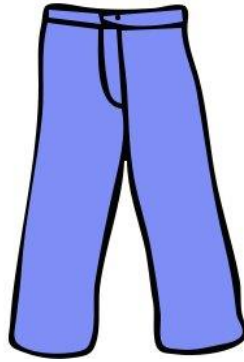

In the morning before school, I need to get dressed.

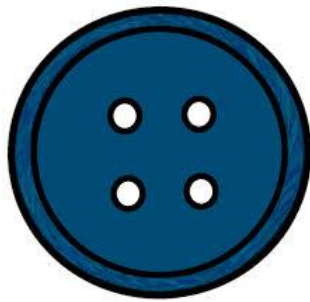

Sometimes I may not want to, but I can dress myself!

First, I need to pick out and put on my pants.

I may need to button, zip or snap my pants.
Sometimes it may be hard, but I can ask for help.

Then, I need to pick out and put on my shirt.

I may need to button my shirt.
This may be hard, but I can ask for help.

Then, I need to put on my socks.

Next, I need to put on my shoes.

Oh no, this kid forgot to put on _____!

I may need to tie my shoes. This may be hard, but I can ask for help.

Now, I am ready to go!

When I dress myself, my clothes feel _____ and I am happy!
