

Civility in Politics

What is civility and how is it practiced?

What impact does social media have on civil discourse?

Does civility matter?

Wednesday, Dec. 1, 2021

Noon-1 p.m. CST

Presented virtually via Zoom

The Drake Law School Recent Alumni Engagement board is pleased to announce a new discussion series that will bring individuals from different parts of the political spectrum together to explore current issues in a respectful and informative forum. The series kicks off with a general discussion about civility in politics.

Panelists:

Rachel Paine Caufield, Professor, Drake University

Anthony Gaughan, Kern Family Chair in Law and Professor of Law, Drake University

Jennifer Konfrst, Iowa State Representative and House Minority Leader

David Young, Former U.S. Congressman, Iowa's 3rd Congressional District

Robert Palmer - Moderator, General Counsel, Iowa League of Cities

Program is free and open to the public.

One hour of Iowa Continuing Legal Education credit pending approval.

REGISTER HERE

Recent Alumni
Engagement Board

Drake
UNIVERSITY
Law School