I. CRIMINAL RECORD

IOWA COURTS ONLINE www.iowacourts.state.ia.us

Search your name for a record of all charges and convictions in the state of Iowa.

It will not have any reference to expunged and deferred records.

The public and free account can give you many details about charges, dates, disposition, general financial information, and a list of filings.

The paid account includes more information, such as: more details about the financial status of the case, parties, exhibits, judgments/liens, property, and traffic details.

UNDERSTANDING TYPES OF CASES

Here is a sentencing chart that can let you know what sentence might be imposed.¹

WHAT IS A RAP SHEET?

Does Iowa have one? Yes, you can request via mail, fax, in person, or online. You will need to sign a release authorization on the Criminal History Record Check Request form.²

Federal FBI RAP Sheet: Record of all arrests, charges, dismissals, convictions, fingerprinting, and expunged records

Who has access to this? Most people cannot access it, as it is a record created and maintained by law enforcement.³

How can I get access to this? You can go directly to the FBI to request it, or you can go through what is called a "channeler," a private company authorized by the FBI to process requests.⁴

IOWA DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS doc.iowa.gov/offender/search

This gives you information about prior sentences in Iowa, and if you are currently under supervision.

II. EXPUNGEMENT

II. EXPUNGEMENT cont.

B. Dismissal and Acquittals Expungements (Iowa Code § 901C.2)

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

- 180 days after case was dismissed (there may be an exception if you are a victim of identity theft or mistaken identity).
- Have to pay court debt in case.
- Acquittal cannot be because of insanity.
- Dismissal cannot be because of incompetence.
- Dismissal / Acquittal must be of all charges.
- Only “public offenses” (Iowa Code § 692.1).

There is no limit on how many of these expungements you can receive.

IS IT MANUAL OR AUTOMATIC?

It is manual.

HOW CAN I PETITION?

Via an application by the defendant (or a prosecutor) or through the court’s own motion. There needs to be time for the parties to object if the elements are not met.

WHAT IS THE EFFECT OF THE EXPUNGEMENT?

It can be seen by court, plus anyone on the “deferred judgment docket.”

The deferred judgment docket is “available only to justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, district judges, district associate judges, judicial magistrates, clerks of the district court, judicial district departments of correctional services, county attorneys, the department of public safety, and the department of corrections requesting information pursuant to this section, or the designee of a justice, judge, magistrate, clerk, judicial district department of correctional services, or county attorneys, or departments.

II. EXPUNGEMENT cont.

C. Sealing Juvenile Records (Iowa Code § 232.150)

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

- Not youthful offender status (tried as adult, not as juvenile).
- Need to be 18 or has to be 2 years from disposition (whichever is later).
- No subsequent or pending conviction (FECR, AGCR, SRCR).
- If the conviction was a FECR or an AGCR, it needs to be in the best interest of the juvenile and public.
- Did not get a OWI (Iowa Code § 321J.2).
- If restitution hasn't been fully paid, the case records can be sealed, but "the name of the court, the title of the action, and the court's file number shall remain unsealed" and there will be a lien until restitution is fully paid.

WHAT IF IT WAS AN ADULT CASE TRANSFERRED TO JUVENILE COURT? (Iowa Code § 232.8(b))

It is automatic.

WHAT IS THE EFFECT?

It cannot be seen by anyone, save a limited amount of judicial branch staff: "sealed records shall no longer be deemed to exist as a matter of law."

IS IT MANUAL OR AUTOMATIC?

Before 2015, it was manual. After 2015, there are automatic hearings.

HOW CAN I PETITION?

Now that it is automatic, it is done by the court. The court schedules a sealing of records hearing 2 years after the date of the last action on the case or on the date the juvenile turns 18 (whichever is later).

A person who was "subject of a complaint or petition alleging delinquency that did not result in an adjudication" can file an application for a hearing.

II. EXPUNGEMENT cont.

- You have to pay debt.
- If there are convictions on same case, it does not apply to those.
- You cannot have been convicted of a felony anywhere in the U.S.
- You cannot have more than 2 in your lifetime.

HOW THEY WORK?

Upon successfully completing your sentence, the “conviction” is considered wiped from your record. It is not considered to be a conviction. And there is a civil penalty.

IS IT AUTOMATIC OR MANUAL?

It is mostly automatic.

WHAT IS THE EFFECT OF DEFERRED JUDGMENT?

It can be seen by anyone on the deferred judgment docket (Iowa Code § 907.4).

Note that confidentiality can be waived on DPS / DCI form (See Iowa Code 692.2).

- Any conviction in Iowa (except treason and cases of impeachment).

- Submit application to Iowa Board of Parole.
- It will be reviewed by administrative staff.

- I. WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT HIRING? . . . p. 18
- II. HOW DO I PREPARE AN APPLICATION? . . . p. 19
- III. ALTERNATIVE JOB OPPORTUNITIES . . . p. 19

Employment Resources in Iowa

I. WHAT DO I NEED TO KNOW ABOUT HIRING?

AT WILL POLICIES

Iowa is an at will state, that means you can be fired for any reason and your employer does not need to tell you why. However, this does not mean that they can discriminate against you.

DISCRIMINATION

EEOC GUIDELINES: Federal Equal Employment Opportunity laws “do prohibit employers from discriminating when they use criminal history information.”¹

Information about arrests and convictions cannot be used in a discriminatory way. In guidance the EEOC released in 2012 it mentions two ways discrimination can occur: through disparate treatment discrimination or disparate impact discrimination.²

TITLE VII OF THE CIVIL RIGHTS ACT³: This prevents discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex and national origin in employment. Having a criminal record is not a protected class, but if you are excluded from work based on a criminal conviction, and you notice that it is disparately applied to employees, you might have a claim.

ADA⁴: Employers cannot discriminate based on disabilities.

FEDERAL BAN-THE-BOX LAW

Protections: Prohibits federal employers from asking about an applicant’s criminal record until after a conditional offer of employment

Remedies / Penalties: There are penalties for any violation of this legislation, which differ depending on what category the employer falls into, e.g., adverse action warnings and civil penalties.

JOBS WITH RESTRICTIONS

Some jobs have some restrictions in regard to criminal convictions. You may want to pay attention to see if there are any restrictions. For example, law enforcement has certain requirements for their employees, and lawyers have to meet a high standard of character and fitness to be licensed as an attorney.

II. HOW DO I PREPARE AN APPLICATION?

JOB SEARCH

Websites like indeed.com or ziprecruiter.com are great places to start when you are looking for a job.

LinkedIn is also a good resource for networking and finding opportunities.

You can always check the classifieds portion of the local newspapers.

RESUME

Resumes are an important tool in the application process. Ideas of things to include are your educational background, volunteer work, relevant work experiences, specific skills and trainings you have, and other relevant things about you. Ways to improve or enhance your resume would be to consider exploring volunteer opportunities, obtaining further education or training, participation in reentry programs, and participation in workforce preparation programs. Always proofread!

INTERVIEW

Practice! Come up with answers for the typical job interview questions (i.e., what are your weaknesses and strengths, what can you bring to this position, etc.).

Come prepared with questions. Be polite and confident. Answer each question thoroughly.

CLEANING YOUR RECORD

You might want to consider cleaning your record, depending on what type of employment you are looking for. Consider if you have been turned away from employment for a certain conviction you have.

Another resource.⁶

III. ALTERNATIVE JOB OPPORTUNITIES

Alternatively, you can consider starting your own business.

Do your research! Sometimes the local library can be a good resource.

You could work at a temp (or staffing) agency. They can help you find a short-term or part-time job rather quickly.

Or you could be an independent contractor. You will have more power over what work you choose to do.

Only applies to people under supervision (probation, parole, work release, incarceration).

WHAT DO I DO?

You can approach the court to modify the plan of restitution. You can argue about ability to pay. It probably will not be successful on victim restitution.

IS THIS MANDATORY OR DISCRETIONARY?

This is discretionary.

BANKRUPTCY

Generally, NOT dischargeable are: Fines, Child support and alimony, Student loans, Victim restitution, Surcharges, and Civil penalties.¹²

CHAPTER 8:

Community Supervision in Iowa

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

- Do you know if you owe any debt?
- How much do you owe?
- Is it from one case or multiple cases?
- Do you know what type of fines you owe?
- Are you on any payment plans?
- Are you behind on these payment plans?
- Are your wages being garnished?
- Have your tax returns been intercepted for any debt?
- Is there a collection agency? Do you know who it is?

OVERVIEW OF CHAPTER 8

- I. RELEASE ON BOND . . . p. 56
- II. SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY . . . p. 57

I. OUT ON BOND (IOWA CODE CH. 811)

In Iowa, you need to meet before a judge for an initial appearance within 24 hours after you have been arrested.

UNIFORM BOND SCHEDULE

This details how much bond for each level of crime. This schedule only applies if (1) the individual is not arrested for a forcible felony, and (2) the court is not in session.¹

OPTIONS TO GET OUT OF JAIL²

- You can post bail,
- You can go through a bonding agency (post 10% bond),
- You can participate in the Pretrial Release Program:
 - There is an interview process.
 - It takes awhile.
 - But it is a good program, since it allows for people to be able to get out.
- RWS - Release with Services:
 - This is kind of like probation.
 - This is when you do not qualify for Pretrial Release.
- ISP - Intensive Supervision Probation or Release:
 - This is kind of like house arrest, it is if you are already on probation.
- Own recognizance.

BOND REVIEW

You can ask for a judge to review your bond at a bond review hearing.

DENY BOND

The court has discretion to deny you bond. If this happens it is usually because you are already on probation.

II. SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY (IOWA CODE CH. 692A) www.iowasexoffender.gov

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE REGISTRY?

To act as a deterrent and to protect the community.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

"On or after July 1, 1995, an individual who has been convicted or adjudicated of a criminal offense against a minor, sexual exploitation, or a sexually violent crime or who was on probation, parole, or work release status, or who was incarcerated on or after July 1, 1995 is required to register. Registration includes individuals that have received a deferred sentence or deferred judgments and can include convictions from other jurisdictions such as other states and/or federal convictions."³

LEVELS

There are three different tiers in the sex offender registry.

See Iowa Code § 692A.102 for more information on what crimes are associated with what tiers.

WHAT ARE THE RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS? (Iowa Code § 692A.114)

A sex offender cannot live within 2,000 feet of the real estate of a school or childcare facility.

ARE THERE ANY EXCEPTIONS TO THE RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS?

Yes, exceptions to this requirement are:

- "The sex offender is required to serve a sentence at a jail, prison, juvenile facility, or other correctional institution or facility.
- The sex offender is subject to an order of commitment under chapter 229A.
- The sex offender has established a residence prior to July 1, 2002.
- The sex offender has established a residence prior to any newly located school or child care facility being established.
- The sex offender is a minor.
- The sex offender is a ward in a guardianship, and a district judge or associate probate judge grants an exemption from the residency restriction.
- The sex offender is a patient or resident at a health care facility as defined in section 135C.1 or a patient in a hospice program, and a district judge or associate probate judge grants an exemption from the residency restriction."⁴

HOW LONG AM I ON THE REGISTRY?

An individual who is required to register with the Iowa Sex Offender Registry must register for 10 (ten) years.

If there are any violation of probation / parole or other violation of the Iowa Code chapter, the 10-year time period will recommence.

The registration will be required for life is there are any subsequent sex-related convictions will change or if a registrant is convicted of an 'aggravated offense.'⁵
