Wm. T. (Bill) Robinson III is member-in-charge of the Northern Kentucky offices of Frost Brown Todd LLC, a regional law firm with over 450 lawyers in nine offices located in Kentucky, Ohio, Tennessee, West Virginia and Indiana. He is president-elect of the American Bar Association and will become ABA president for a one-year term in August 2011.

Throughout his career, Robinson has served as a leader in his profession and in his community. An ABA member since 1972, he has been active in the association for more than 25 years in various leadership roles, including a three-year term as association treasurer and seven years on the ABA Board of Governors. Robinson is a past president of the Kentucky Bar Association, a past president of the Kentucky Bar Foundation and founding chair of Kentucky's Interest on Lawyer Trust Accounts (IOLTA) program. He also served as board chair of the Kentucky and the Northern Kentucky Chambers of Commerce, and as board chair of the Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport.

Robinson’s awards and recognitions include the Judge Learned Hand Human Relations Award from the American Jewish Committee, the Outstanding Lawyer Award from the Kentucky Bar Association, the Themis Award from the Cincinnati Bar Association, the Jacob E. Davis Award from the Greater Cincinnati Foundation, the Lincoln Award from Northern Kentucky University and the Oak Award as Outstanding Alumnus of Kentucky from the Kentucky Advocates for Higher Education.

He is a graduate of Thomas More College and the University of Kentucky College of Law, where in 2004 he was inducted into the Alumni Hall of Fame.
Chief Justice Mark S. Cady of Ft. Dodge was appointed to the Supreme Court in 1998. He was born in Rapid City, South Dakota. He earned both his undergraduate and law degrees from Drake University. After graduating from law school in 1978, he served as a judicial law clerk for the Second Judicial District for one year. He was then appointed as an assistant Webster County attorney and practiced with a law firm in Fort Dodge. Cady was appointed a district associate judge in 1983 and a district court judge in 1986. In 1994, he was appointed to the Iowa Court of Appeals. He was elected chief judge of the Court of Appeals in 1997.

Justice Cady is an adjunct faculty member at Buena Vista University and serves on the President's Advisory Council. He is married and has two children.

The Supreme Court Competition

Each year, outstanding advocates in the Law School compete in the Supreme Court Competition for the honor of presenting final arguments to the Iowa Supreme Court. The problem is based upon a real case, using an actual record that was pending before the Iowa Supreme Court, thus giving competitors a realistic experience.

The competition is open to all second and third year law students and consists of writing a brief and two preliminary rounds, one on-brief and one off-brief. Each competitor argues individually in the preliminary rounds, with 10 minutes of time allocated to each advocate. The four top advocates based upon scores from the preliminary rounds advance to the Supreme Court Competition before the Iowa Supreme Court. The four finalists are usually paired as teams of two for the final round, each arguing for 10 minutes. The award for the Best Oralist in the final round is then announced at the Supreme Court Celebration Banquet.

A Brief Summary of the 2011 Supreme Court Competition Problem

Robert Lance, Plaintiff v. City of Dubuque, Defendants

In 2004, the City of Dubuque filed a Petition for Voluntary Annexation of Territory, in order to obtain a portion of land, including Seippel Road. The Iowa City Development Board granted the petition on July 6, 2004, and Dubuque began to provide public works services to the area, including maintaining roads. The petition, however, was challenged, and a district court overturned the City Development Board’s decision on April 20, 2005. The Iowa Supreme Court reversed the district court’s holding on October 27, 2006. This decision officially transferred to Dubuque the annexed territory at issue.

During the intervening period, Dubuque still provided certain services to the area at issue. In the early morning hours on October 23, 2005, Robert Lance was traveling Southbound on Seippel road, when he was forced to swerve to avoid an oncoming motorist. Lance's vehicle encountered a washed-out portion of the shoulder and struck a temporary driveway. Lance was injured in the collision and filed suit.

In its motion for summary judgment, the City of Dubuque claimed it could not be held liable as a matter of law for the Lance’s injuries. The district court agreed with the city and granted summary judgment. The Lances now appeal.

INNS OF COURT
American Inns of Court have been formed throughout the United States for the purpose of promoting and improving trial and appellate advocacy skills, adherence to ethical ideals and professionalism among members, members who are limited in number to 65, include judges, senior and new attorneys, and law students who meet regularly throughout the year to participate in demonstrations of forensic techniques, critiques and evaluations, and collegial discussion and dining. Two Inns of Court have been formed in Des Moines, and Drake Law students and faculty are members of each.
