Iowa Animal Law in Practice – Monday, January 26

Not everyone who practices animal law studies it... Drake Animal Legal Defense Fund (ALDF) is hosting a Q&A panel with Iowa legal professionals who have put animal law into practice. From private to public practice, these professionals did not go into animal law: animal law found them. They will explain how they've encountered animals in their cases, what they did, and what future lawyers should consider in similar situations. Space is limited to 24 attendees. Please sign up in Symplicity. Speakers include:

- Counsel at Polk County Attorney's office
- Kelly Grossman (JD'19) at The Law Shop

Attention 3Ls – You are eligible to apply for the Order of the Barristers

The Order of the Barristers application period will open on Monday, Feb. 2 at 8 a.m. and close on Monday, Feb. 9 at 5 p.m. The National Order of the Barristers recognizes law students who have made outstanding contributions to advocacy programs and demonstrated exceptional skill in oral advocacy during law school. Drake Law School may select up to twelve honorees. Eligibility is limited to graduating 3Ls, including members of the Class of 2026 who graduated in December 2025. Honorees are selected by a vote of all members of the Moot Court Board, appellate teams, mock trial teams, and skills teams. The selected students will be announced at the Moot Court Banquet on Wednesday, March 25, at 6 p.m. in Kern Commons.

Applications will be emailed to all eligible students at 8 a.m. on Monday, Feb. 2. Please contact Tiffany Contreras (tiffany.contreras@drake.edu) if you have any questions.

Spring 2026 Law and Economics Reading Group

Professor Kidd will be hosting a law and economics reading group next semester. It is not affiliated with any course, and is not available for credit, but will provide an opportunity for economic-minded folks to get together regularly and discuss. The only qualification for joining the reading group is a firm commitment to read in advance of the meetings and come prepared for a vigorous discussion. Prof. Kidd will provide the reading materials and refreshments.

The two books that will be discussed are Fredrich Hayek's Individualism and Economic Order and Johan Norberg's The Capitalist Manifesto: Why the Global Free Market Will Save the World. You do not need to agree with the premises of either author to join the reading group; spirited and respectful disagreement is what makes for a great reading group.

Anyone who is interested should contact Prof. Kidd directly (jeremy.kidd@drake.edu), indicating an interest.

Food Security Survey

Drake University Food Security Coalition is conducting a campus-wide survey to better understand students' access to fresh, nutritious food. The law school has included a few questions specific to our Law School Food Pantry. We hope you'll share your experiences to help Drake respond to student need. https://drake.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0rpGD3aI72807D8 Questions or suggestions about the food pantry may be directed to Lyra Halsten, lyra.halsten@drake.edu, or Dean Battles, liz.battles@drake.edu.
