

Agenda

8-8:30 a.m. - Registration

8:30-8:35 a.m. - Opening remarks

8:35-9:10 a.m. - Jean Baker, Attorney and CASA Coach

How does juvenile CINA court differ from other courts? If you don't know, you might be hurting your client—and the stakes are just too high for that. Learn what to do and what not to do in order to best serve your client.

9:10-9:45 a.m. - Kurt Swaim, First Assistant Public Defender, and Bill Bushell, Assistant Public Defender, Iowa State Public Defender's Office

Everyone wants to get paid. What are some of the most common mistakes attorneys make? What do the best attorneys do to ensure they get paid fairly and in a timely manner?

9:45-10:20 a.m. - Janelle Larson, Maureen Barton, and Chris Skuster, Iowa Department of Human Services

DHS and attorneys work closely together in juvenile court. The relationship can be challenging as there is both a collaborative and adversarial tone to the relationship. These panelists will share their perspective on what attorneys can do to both serve their client and “play nicely” with DHS.

10:35-11:10 a.m. - Dr. Frank Filippelli, Medical Director, United Community Services; Physician, Newton Correctional Facility

Everyone's talking about the opioid epidemic. With regard to Medication Assisted Treatment (“MAT”), this presentation will discuss best practices, federal guidelines, and how best to work with parents who have a substance use disorder.

11:10-11:45 a.m. - The Hon. Colin J. Witt, District Associate Judge

As an experienced juvenile court judge, Judge Witt will provide perspective and insight from the bench in terms of what attorneys are doing to best help their clients, as well as the things that are not helpful and may even be harmful to their client's interests.
