

Sample Syllabus Statement on Sexual Misconduct

The University has resources available for students who have experienced sexual or interpersonal misconduct, which can include sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking, for example. Some resources are confidential, which means personal information will not be shared with anyone else. Other non-confidential (yet still private) resources can explain how to locate support resources, file a complaint within the university, or file criminal charges – these non-confidential resources must share incidents of sexual and interpersonal misconduct with the Title IX Coordinator. Resources, as well as reporting options, can be found on the Title IX webpage at www.drake.edu/titleix.

As a professor, I am non-confidential; however, please know that sharing with the university does not mean the individual must participate in a formal university or criminal process. There are also options on the Title IX webpage to anonymously report to the university. Other services the university can provide include crisis intervention (safety plan, counseling, rights information) and assistance in academic and housing accommodations as needed.
