Required Texts

Course Policies

Attendance is required. Missing a significant number of classes will detrimentally affect your final grade. Doing non-class related things in class—including, but not limited to, surfing the web, texting, tweeting, snapchatting, instagramming, reading other texts, doing other work, writing in your daily planner, sleeping, nodding off—will also have grade-related consequences. Please remember that English classes are small, and it is obvious to the professor and your classmates when you are present in body but not in mind.

Participation is required. I will do my best to facilitate discussion, and I expect that all students enrolled in the class will do their best to actively participate in class discussion. If you are not willing to participate in class discussion, this class may not be for you. In order to be prepared for class discussion, you must do the assigned readings.

The College of Arts and Sciences’ “Academic Dishonesty Policy” can be found here: http://www.drake.edu/artsci/studentresources/policiesandregulations/

Here is their definition of “academic dishonesty.”

“Academic dishonesty is an all encompassing term involving any activity that seeks to gain credit for work one has not done or to deliberately damage or destroy the work of others. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Plagiarism - The misrepresentation, either by intent or negligence, of another’s ideas, phrases, discourse, or works as one’s own.

Cheating - the act, or attempted act, of giving or obtaining aid and/or information by illicit means in meeting any academic requirements, including examinations.

Fabrication - intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic sense in any academic exercise.

Facilitating Academic Dishonesty - intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to commit an act of academic dishonesty.”

Any suspected case of academic dishonesty will be dealt with according to the College’s procedures and penalties, which can be found on the website linked above.

Michelle Laughlin (michelle.laughlin@drake.edu, 271-1835) is Drake’s Student Disability Services Coordinator. If you have a disability and will require academic accommodations in this course, please let me know. Accommodations are coordinated through Student Disability Services.

Assignments and Grades

Assignments

Research Assignment Presentation
Research a Marvel comic character who has appeared in a comic with Black Panther. (Note: Nearly every Marvel character, from the Avengers to the X-Men, has appeared alongside Black Panther.) Your research should focus on this character’s role in the Black Panther universe. You will then do a 10-minute in class presentation (using PowerPoint or some other visual aid) on your findings.

You should talk about some of the following, depending on what is most relevant.

- What is this character’s history? When did the character first appear?
- Who has written and drawn this character?
- How has this character changed over the years?
- What are some different versions of this character?
- What social issues has this character addressed?

After discussing the above questions, you should develop an argument that answers the following.

- What does this character say to you about social and cultural values? Why is this character interesting to you? Why should we care about this character?

Research Assignment Essay
For the end of the semester, you will turn your research presentation into an essay of at least 1200 words. You should focus your essay with a thesis statement. That is, you should make a claim about how you see your character relating to a specific social and/or cultural value. Your essay should be organized coherently and clearly written. You should use and cite sources correctly.

Discussion leader for Comics
Twice during the semester, you will lead 10-minutes of class discussion on a specific aspect of a comic we are reading. You will sign up for these assignments during the first week of classes.

Close Reading Essays
You will write a 500-word close reading for each comic collection we read. I will give you a prompt for each book.

Participation on discussion boards and in class
For each class when we read an essay, you should post a response and a reading question to the discussion board. You should be prepared to discuss the essay in class.

Grading
Research Assignment Presentation: 20%
Research Assignment Essay: 20%
Discussion leaders for comics 1: 5%
Discussion leaders for comics 2: 5%

Close reading Essay 3: 10%
Close reading Essay 4: 10%
Participation on discussion board and in class: 10%

Assignment Submission
Please submit your assignments by email to me: jeff.karnicky@drake.edu. Submit your assignments as an attachment, preferably as a Microsoft Word document. (If you don’t use Word, be sure to submit your paper as a readable document, such as an .rtf, .pdf, or .html document.) Please use your last name as the first word of your document title; if your name is Joe Jones, your attachment should be named “Jones.docx” (or “Jonespaper1.docx” or something similar, as long as “Jones” is the first word. This makes filing and grading much easier for me.) Papers should be emailed before the class period in which they are due. I will email students whose papers I have not received.
