COME TO BEAUTIFUL AUSTRIA AND LEARN HOW TO PERFORM CLINICAL EXAMS PLUS INTERACT WITH OTHER HEALTH PROFESSIONAL AUSTRIAN STUDENTS (3 credits)

Location:
- University of Applied Sciences-Wiener Neustadt (FHWN), Austria. Department of Health Sciences

Pre-requisites:
- Pharm 125, Bio 12 or HSCI 125

Course format:
- Lecture, Lab, and Afternoon Field Trip
- Collaborative dinners with WN students
- Field trips include: Bratislava Castle, Curling, Schonbrunn Palace, Vienna

Instructors:
- Dr. Alisa Drapeaux DPT, ATC - Assistant Professor in Health Sciences, CPHS
- Dr. Michelle Bottenberg PharmD, BCPS - Associate Professor in Clinical Sciences Department

Course Objectives:
- Learn vitals, musculoskeletal, neuro assessment skills
- Develop verbal and written communication for medical encounters
- Learn common pharmaceutical treatment approaches for medical diagnoses in United States
- Outline the primary differences between the United States and Austrian healthcare system
- Discuss IPE efforts in the United States and relationship to patient assessment