

As an instructional designer with Drake Online and Continuing Education, Nichole brings 10+ years of experience in online teaching and learning in higher education. Her expertise ranges from technology planning, training, rollout, and support to faculty development in course design and methodology. She spent 8+ years teaching math online, which influenced her passion to champion student-centered design principles. She moved to Des Moines in 2018, where she resides with her husband, Dan, and four children.
