

2020

Global Citizen Forum: International Perspectives on Privilege

Tuesday, March 3

When Good Intentions Are Not Enough

A student workshop focused on creating equitable and inclusive service projects.

7:00 PM / Olmsted Center conference rooms

Free Pizza at 6:45 PM!

This workshop will engage students in a hands-on design thinking activity and discussions that explore the importance of diverse representation within volunteer opportunities as well as the barriers that prevent involvement. Students from various backgrounds, lived-experiences, majors and interests are needed in attendance in order to make the activity successful. Whether you are currently involved in service activities or want to get involved but don't know how, this workshop is for you!

Wednesday, March 4

Lecture: Migration, Asylum, and Transgender Lives

Dr. Debanuj DasGupta

4:00 PM / Sussman Theater

Reception immediately following.

The recipient of Drake's Principal Global Citizenship Award will be announced prior to the keynote speaker's presentation.

Dr. DasGupta is Assistant Professor of Geography and Women's, Gender, Sexuality Studies at the University of Connecticut. Debanuj's research and teaching focuses on racialized regulation of space, immigration detention, queer migrations, and the global governance of migration, sexuality, and HIV. Prior to his doctoral degree, Debanuj worked for over sixteen years within several international development agencies, HIV/AIDS, LGBT rights and immigrant rights organizations in India and the US.

Thursday, March 5

Comedian Hayden Kristal

7:00 PM

Pomerantz Stage in Olmsted Center

Hayden Kristal is a Brooklyn-based former zookeeper who gave up a lucrative career in salamanders to pursue comedy and public speaking. Speaking on the topics of diversity and intersectionality, Hayden will be discussing the importance of intersectionality in activism ensuring that we are advocating for all people and listening to every voice. Bringing her comedic spirit, Hayden brings perspective on bringing others into the conversation.

Friday, March 6

Mini-Conference

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM / Collier Scripps Hall

8:30 AM: Full schedule available at check-in Light continental breakfast available

Nelson Student Research Symposium:

A symposium featuring student research on global topics. The symposium will be complemented by faculty-led workshops on research/paper development support.

Concurrent sessions:

Lisa Rossi, facilitator from the Tuesday night service workshop will be providing a recap of the session and ideas generated for action.

Ready or Not: Black Students Experiences of South African Universities

Ready or Not! is a 45-min documentary developed out of a longitudinal qualitative study which tracked students from eight diverse universities in South Africa and documented their experiences. The film will be followed by a panel discussion on students experiences in SA universities by three researchers from the University of KwaZulu-Natal (UKZN), Durban, South Africa.