Global Service-Learning Reconsidered

Renee Sedlacek, Director, Community Engaged Learning
Maria Rohach, Assistant Director, Drake Administered Programs Abroad
Carlyn Crowe, Visiting Assistant Professor and Internship Coordinator, SJMC
Bryan Thomas Jr., Academic Success & Retention Specialist and Crew Scholars Staff Director
Laura Kieran, Assistant Professor of Special Education
Sally Haack, Associate Professor of Pharmacy Practice
Ellen Yee, Professor of Law, Director of International Programs
Sticky Note Activity

How do you define service-learning?

On the sticky notes provided, please write down characteristics, descriptors, buzz words, etc. Use one sticky note per idea.
Service-Learning At Drake

Service-learning is a type of experiential education that combines and pursues both achieving academic learning and meeting a relevant community defined need with intentionally integrating the use of effective ongoing reflection and assessment.

Global Service-Learning also integrates effective cross-cultural interaction

(Experiential Learning Council, 2011)
Global Service-Learning

- 3 Models at Drake
- Travel Seminars
- Goals
Design

- Learning Community AND Travel Seminar
- Faculty AND Staff
Funding

- Olson Endowment
- International Grants Committee
- Provost Office
Partners

Collaborated with an international institutional partner
● Tecnológico de Monterrey in Guadalajara, Mexico
● Co-led by Tec faculty member
● Community partners
Albergue
Galilea 2000
Albergue Galilea 2000
Albergue Galilea 2000
Albergue Galilea 2000
Albergue Galilea 2000
Albergue Galilea 2000
Centro Psicoeducativo Freire
Critical Reflection

Different Reflection Styles:
‘What, So What, Now What?’
‘Whoa & Wow’

Shared experiences
Building a Team

Why?
How?
Discussion

• What, Now What, So What?
Some of Our Take Aways...

- Scaffolding
- Team bonding
- Class size
- Local language/Cultural navigator
- Collaborating across cultures
- Non-sense Talk
- Intentional Reflection
- And have fun!
Resources available at www.drake.edu/servicelearning

http://www.drake.edu/studyabroad/draketravelseminars/forfaculty/staff/

Renee Sedlacek
Director, Community Engaged Learning
renee.sedlacek@drake.edu
515-271-2454

Maria Rohach
Assistant Director, Drake Administered Programs Abroad
maria.rohach@drake.edu
515-271-3651