

Employer Opportunities

Connect and engage with Drake students

WELCOME NEW STAFF

Assistant Director, Liaison to College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences and School of Education

Amanda Martin has worked in the Drake Office of Community Engaged Learning since fall of 2015. In that role she helped students connect to the local community through service and internships and worked to equip them as change-makers. Amanda has a BA in communication, MA in higher education, and spent two years as an AmeriCorps VISTA (a national service organization). She is excited to help students make meaning of their employment and co-curricular experiences and help them prepare for meaningful careers.
