Campus Job Opportunities

The Office of Community Engaged Learning is hiring for Community Engagement Peers (formerly Service Learning Ambassadors) for the next academic year. Community Engagement Peers are student navigators trained to help connect students to the many ways they can be involved in social change locally and globally. Peers also help manage their own project and responsibilities, while being a part of a larger team. Applications are due March 4!

Global Citizen Forum Student Workshop

Spaces are still open for the free student workshop "When Good Intentions Are Not Enough: Creating Equitable Service" happening Tuesday, March 3 from 7-8:30pm. With the help of student and staff facilitators, community leader Lisa Rossi will lead the group in a Design Thinking Process, a process that will be useful in other areas of your life!

Whether you're a student who would like to be involved in service but don't know how to start or have other barriers to participation, or are a student who is involved in service and would like to learn about ways to make your service opportunities more equitable, this workshop is for you.

The event will take place in Upper Olmsted and free pizza will be provided prior to the event at 6:45pm. Registration is required.
