

PERIPHERY ART AND LITERARY JOURNAL

The outermost boundary. The farthest limit. The extreme outer edge.

Who We Are

Periphery is an Art and Literary Journal that has run for nearly 60 years. We are student-run and feature student work. We accept submissions from undergraduate students at Drake and around the country.

What We Accept

Paintings
Photography
Multi-media art pieces
Poetry
Short Stories
Nonfiction pieces
Etc.

How to Submit

Submissions are accepted in both the Fall and Spring semesters. Students who submit pieces in Fall have the opportunity to make suggested edits and resubmit in Spring. You can submit a piece through the portal on our website at peripheryjournal.com.

When We Print

The journal is printed at the end of the Spring semester, where it is celebrated with a launch party that gives contributors a chance to be recognized for their work. The journals are distributed at the launch party and across campus.

You can find more information about Periphery, including submission information, at peripheryjournal.com.
