Dear's Note

Let me finish on this high note. I hope you get to enjoy some of the upcoming talks and events that were just featured in the A&S Newsletter. Have you completed the Prevent Harassment Blackboard Course yet? If not, you can take it online and the course will give you details on what to do next. Thanks also for continuing to set the right tone in your classes. After the last day of classes, you can get to work on a mission statement and discuss important A&S business.

Grants

The deadline for submitting Faculty Development proposals for the 2019-2020 year is March 29. Please remember to send in your applications by March 29 (this Friday)!

A&S Newsletters

If you or your students are doing something really exciting, SUBMIT YOUR NEWS! While we can compile some of this information from reports and official Drake news, we want to make sure everyone is alerted to your endeavors. Specifically, the grants provide for three categories of funding: collaborative endeavors, faculty development, and professional development.

Spotlights

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Irish Artist Aideen Barry

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities is being held on March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The event will be held in the Cowles Reading Room; March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The Irish artist Aideen Barry is presenting the event, and her works will be featured in the lecture. After the lecture, there will be an informal reception in the Cowles Library Cafe.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Latino Mixed-Status Families

The Latino Mixed-Status Families event will be held on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm. Please stop by to congratulate Dr. Cassaundra Rodriguez, who is a visiting assistant professor of philosophy. Her lecture will be held in the Cowles Library Cafe on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Violence Prevention Together

The Violence Prevention Together event will be held on Friday, April 12, 2-4pm. We'll have our all-faculty meeting to talk about important A&S business. You can subscribe to receive updates by email on important A&S business.

Grants

The deadline for submitting Faculty Development proposals for the 2019-2020 year is March 29. Please remember to send in your applications by March 29 (this Friday)!

A&S Newsletters

If you or your students are doing something really exciting, SUBMIT YOUR NEWS! While we can compile some of this information from reports and official Drake news, we want to make sure everyone is alerted to your endeavors. Specifically, the grants provide for three categories of funding: collaborative endeavors, faculty development, and professional development.

Spotlights

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Irish Artist Aideen Barry

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities is being held on March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The event will be held in the Cowles Reading Room; March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The Irish artist Aideen Barry is presenting the event, and her works will be featured in the lecture. After the lecture, there will be an informal reception in the Cowles Library Cafe.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Latino Mixed-Status Families

The Latino Mixed-Status Families event will be held on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm. Please stop by to congratulate Dr. Cassaundra Rodriguez, who is a visiting assistant professor of philosophy. Her lecture will be held in the Cowles Library Cafe on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Violence Prevention Together

The Violence Prevention Together event will be held on Friday, April 12, 2-4pm. We'll have our all-faculty meeting to talk about important A&S business. You can subscribe to receive updates by email on important A&S business.

Grants

The deadline for submitting Faculty Development proposals for the 2019-2020 year is March 29. Please remember to send in your applications by March 29 (this Friday)!

A&S Newsletters

If you or your students are doing something really exciting, SUBMIT YOUR NEWS! While we can compile some of this information from reports and official Drake news, we want to make sure everyone is alerted to your endeavors. Specifically, the grants provide for three categories of funding: collaborative endeavors, faculty development, and professional development.

Spotlights

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Irish Artist Aideen Barry

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities is being held on March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The event will be held in the Cowles Reading Room; March 28th from 4pm-5:30pm. The Irish artist Aideen Barry is presenting the event, and her works will be featured in the lecture. After the lecture, there will be an informal reception in the Cowles Library Cafe.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Latino Mixed-Status Families

The Latino Mixed-Status Families event will be held on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm. Please stop by to congratulate Dr. Cassaundra Rodriguez, who is a visiting assistant professor of philosophy. Her lecture will be held in the Cowles Library Cafe on Friday, April 12, 12-1:30pm.

The 2019 Myron Marty Lectureship in the Arts + Humanities - Violence Prevention Together

The Violence Prevention Together event will be held on Friday, April 12, 2-4pm. We'll have our all-faculty meeting to talk about important A&S business. You can subscribe to receive updates by email on important A&S business.