Gesine big grant Tim Knepper received that will secure three years of Interfaith Youth camps at Drake. These are not only community college classes, but classes from some of our peer institutions. instead. At the same time, many of our offerings don’t make enrollment and get cancelled. offered, in seat and online. A recent internal report showed that many students transfer help with schedule planning, please let them know about the many summer classes that will be amazing student work that is on display in the Anderson Gallery through April 12. The Drake Reading Corner.

Advising Corner

515-271-3939

All of these dates are located

These events are on the University Calendar at Student Spotlights!

From OnCampus:

the timing is excellent if you have students working in research. You do not have to

Artificial Intelligence Major Announcement

the Des Moines community. More information about the fellowship can be found

132nd Annual Iowa Academy of Science meeting and DUCURS with the Des Moines Area Religious Council, received a grant for $287,280 to support their

to pilot interfaith “camps” for working professionals, to support interfaith programming on 3pm in Olin Hall.

serves as a fundraiser for educational materials for a tutoring program at a local Somali

The conference concludes on the afternoon of Sunday, April 5 with a multi-faith concert that painting, the artists fashioned their own responses using Pollock’s style.

from 3:30-4pm on the Core value of Commitment to the Mission. This will be followed by the

The Holiday Schedule for 2021-2022 has been posted.

Add/Drop Form

Students have until 4:30 pm on Wednesday, April 1 to

Please submit a midterm grade for all first-year students in your course(s). Please also examinations on a shorter notice and for different times/days, contact Natalie Bayer as

The Dean’s Office provides testing accommodations on Mondays at 9am and Wednesdays schedule builder.

your course(s) caps are correct. If edits need to be made, please alert your department’s with J-term 2021, please take a moment to ensure the accuracy of your course offerings.

Please check your class schedule

interests, lighten up their load during the regular academic year, and facilitate fulfillment of online and/or uniquely developed for the summer session. Taking summer classes at Drake advisees to make the most of summer break by taking summer classes at Drake! The

Summer Class Registration

resource; and explain how you expect students to be prepared for their advising

meet with them and discuss registration for Summer 2020, Fall 2020, and J-term

important dates:

the Health Professions Day on February 27th.

Mark Vitha,

3pm in Olin Hall.

This poster exhibit explores how

Of note:

preventative health education for women, two programs for health professionals, and leadership for women in ministry.

Please see the attendance policy for more information on absences.

The following students are invited to present their faculty-directed senior projects at the

Submit a presentation proposal to

Drake Student Senate

The Drake Student Senate is accepting presentation proposals in the areas of research, creative activity, service learning, professional development, and public service. Proposals are due no later than April 1, 2020, by 5pm. Students will be notified of the results by April 15, 2020.

Submit a proposal

www.drake.edu/artsci

Kayla Jenkins

3pm in Olin Hall.

From OnCampus:

the Holocaust Memorial Museum to Drake’s Meredith Hall. This poster exhibit explores how students have been invited to present their research at the 88th Annual meeting of the Iowa Junior Academy of Science –

the 88th Annual meeting of the Iowa Junior Academy of Science –

To pilot interfaith “camps” for working professionals, to support interfaith programming on for the 88th Annual meeting of the Iowa Junior Academy of Science – from 3:30-4pm on the Core value of Commitment to the Mission. This will be followed by the of commitment to the mission. This will be followed by the

Students have until 4:30 pm on Wednesday, April 1 to

Please submit a midterm grade for all first-year students in your course(s). Please also

examinations on a shorter notice and for different times/days, contact Natalie Bayer as

The Dean’s Office provides testing accommodations on Mondays at 9am and Wednesdays

schedule builder.

your course(s) caps are correct. If edits need to be made, please alert your department’s with J-term 2021, please take a moment to ensure the accuracy of your course offerings.

Please check your class schedule

interests, lighten up their load during the regular academic year, and facilitate fulfillment of online and/or uniquely developed for the summer session. Taking summer classes at Drake advisees to make the most of summer break by taking summer classes at Drake! The

Summer Class Registration

resource; and explain how you expect students to be prepared for their advising

meet with them and discuss registration for Summer 2020, Fall 2020, and J-term

important dates:

the Health Professions Day on February 27th.

Mark Vitha,

3pm in Olin Hall.

This poster exhibit explores how

Of note:

preventative health education for women, two programs for health professionals, and leadership for women in ministry.

Please see the attendance policy for more information on absences.

The following students are invited to present their faculty-directed senior projects at the

Submit a presentation proposal to

Drake Student Senate

The Drake Student Senate is accepting presentation proposals in the areas of research, creative activity, service learning, professional development, and public service. Proposals are due no later than April 1, 2020, by 5pm. Students will be notified of the results by April 15, 2020.

Submit a proposal

www.drake.edu/artsci

Kayla Jenkins

March 09, 2020

Share this:

Subscribe