▶ Introduction

Religions of Des Moines is an informational booklet aimed at connecting students at Drake University with religious communities in the region. Our hope is not only to allow students to find religious communities in which they feel at home, but also to encourage them to step outside of their comfort zone.

The booklet is organized by general groupings of religion alphabetically, which will allow students to quickly find information relevant to them while also allowing them to browse a wider range of communities.

This booklet aims to be distributed throughout the Greater Des Moines Area, focusing specifically on Drake University residence halls for undergraduate students new to Des Moines. Religions of Des Moines has been a project of love and community, helping to create and strengthen new and old bonds between students and the communities that surround us.

SUMMARY

Religious practices often revolve around celebratory occasions in the Buddhist traditions of Southeast Asia. Traditionally, services are held on Sundays. The temple doors open around nine in the morning so that the matriarch line of the Temple (mothers and wives) can begin to prepare a pot luck that is served after services. Services feature a good deal of chanting, some prayers, and also a "dharma talk" in which a monk expounds Buddhist teachings to the laity. With the exception of traditional Buddhist chants that are uttered in the ancient Indian language of Pali, the service is conducted entirely in Laotian.

SUMMARY

The Mission of Holy Trinity Church is to be a faith-filled Eucharistic community committed to Christ-centered stewardship especially through education, justice, hospitality, and service. We fulfill this mission through our many parish endeavors. The banner on our church proclaims: “All Are Welcome Here” and this has been the essence of Holy Trinity Church and School since its founding in 1920 by Fr. Francis Ostediek. This is still our motto today. As we approach the 100th anniversary of our parish, we look forward to continuing to welcome all who come to us.

SUMMARY

The mission statement of St. Anthony's Catholic Church is to "To fulfill God's will in our parish by becoming more fully a catalyst for spiritual renewal, a beacon of direction for others to the treasure trove of God's graces, a spiritual home inviting young and old to live, love, and learn the Catholic faith in a culture which is centered on the Person of Jesus Christ." St. Anthony's main beliefs, like all Catholic belief, are expressed in what is called the Nicene Creed. This creed is a full and complex statement of belief where every word, line, and statement matters. St. Anthony's is a church focused on faith, love and community through Christ. They are a family friendly and very welcoming community that would love to have you on the journey to grow closer to the Lord.

SUMMARY

St. Augustin's is a community based on love, sacrifice, commitment, and fellowship/community. They work together to grow in faith and fellowship through the Trinity. They also have a grade school connected to the parish. St. Augustin's is a very open and welcoming community that would love to have you. They offer all the sacraments and have many opportunities of faith formation through prayer, outreach, and much more. Their core set of beliefs, like the beliefs of all other Catholic communities comes directly from the Nicene Creed. This is a complex statement of beliefs where every line and word matters and has meaning. St. Augustin's is a community that is open to anyone who wants to join and would be very happy to walk with you in your journey toward Christ.

SUMMARY

St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Student Center is a spiritual "home away from home" for resident parishioners and Drake students alike. The church strives, through worship, prayer, fellowship, study, and service, to be disciples of Jesus today, so that they will be the leaders of the Catholic Church and Community tomorrow. There is a FOCUS group that is designed to keep young adults and college students raised Catholic to remain involved in the church and continue attending masses and participating in the church activities. There are occasional food pantry weekends on which mass goers are encouraged to bring in non-perishable food items for donation to the DMARC Food Pantry.

SUMMARY

Catholicism can be cultural. Knowing and following Jesus can only be intentional. The four pillars of St. Mary's discipleship pathway (gathering, encountering, transforming, and sharing) guides them and you in taking next steps on the ongoing and ever deepening journey with Jesus. They have many opportunities for deepening, growing, and learning, and living out faith as well as service and outreach opportunities. St. Mary's also has many opportunities for kids and teens.

SUMMARY

St. Pius X Catholic Church lives by their four pillars of "Love God. Love others. Make disciples. Restore all things in Christ." We all share a basic human longing for a place to call home. We are created for a living, loving, growing relationship with God. Nothing else, regardless of how much we pay for it or how much we give away to achieve it, can satisfy that hunger. No matter where you are in your journey of faith, St. Pius X welcomes you to find a spiritual home with us. We are a community of faith-filled disciples who pray for, nurture and support one another during life's ups and downs.

SUMMARY

Although Serbs first immigrated to Iowa around 1905, it was not until 2013 that they had their own dedicated church: St. Demetrius Serbian Orthodox Church. Since then, Serbs of all generations have had a place to come together not only to worship but also to preserve their culture. At the conclusion of most Sunday Divine Liturgy services, the congregation participates in a sensory experience that is every bit the equal of the service itself: a scrumptious and decadent meal. Three times a year, they are joined by the Serbian Orthodox communities of Kansas City and Omaha, the two closest Serbian parishes.

SUMMARY

Established on 35th Street in the Drake neighborhood in 1930, St. George's Greek Orthodox Church is the oldest Orthodox Christian church in the metro area. Over the years, the church has accommodated Orthodox Christians of many different nationalities and ethnicities: not only Greeks but also Eastern Europeans such as Serbs and Russians, North Africans such as Ethiopians and Copts, and Arabs such as Lebanese and Syrians. Although many of these non-Greeks have established their own Orthodox Christian churches in the recent past, they all gathered at St. George's in 1997 for a very special event—a visit by the Ecumenical Patriarch.

SUMMARY

St Mary's Coptic Orthodox Church is member of the Coptic (Egyptian) Church, which is one of the six Oriental Orthodox Churches (which also include the Ethiopian, Eritrean, Syriac, Armenian, and Malankara Churches). These Oriental Orthodox Churches are referred to as "non-Chalcedonian," since they reject the ruling of the Council of Chalcedon (451) that Jesus Christ has two distinct natures, instead maintaining that these two natures are "completely unified" in "one perfectly united nature of Christ."

COMMUNITY ETIQUETTE

- Dress modestly.
- Although the Eucharist cannot be taken unless one is baptized into the Orthodox Church, one can instead receive a blessing by going forward with arms crossed over chest. Orthodox Christians cross themselves from head to belly, then right to left shoulder.

SUMMARY

Our world hungers for stability. There is a need for men and women who are willing to commit to true discipleship – a process that requires consistency, integrity – and faith. When committed people follow the Lord, living by faith in His promises, they truly become His hands and feet, living by example and leading by serving. He is our hope, and our worship is a reflection of this mindset and attitude. The gospel message of salvation through belief in Jesus is the core of our foundation.

Expressing this hope and love is more than just meeting in a building and singing songs. Our hope in Him defines our identity as believers and disciples. Loving God. Loving others. As we fully commit our hearts and minds to living out these commands, we fulfill God's purpose for the church.

By simply doing life together, it becomes the standard to look beyond yourself and see the true identity and needs of others. As we grow together, living out the example of Christ becomes a reality, not just a cliché.

SUMMARY

There are three different meetinghouses for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the greater Des Moines area: Des Moines, West Des Moines, and Waukee. Each meetinghouse is utilized by numerous congregations called "wards," which stagger their use of the sanctuary and other facilities on Sundays. It is generally the case, therefore, that services are happening in the sanctuary every hour for as many wards as there are at that meetinghouse. No alcohol, caffeine, and swearing. Dress modestly in Sunday best.

| Worship In Chapel | Sunday 8:15AM |
| Vietnamese Bible Study | Sunday 9:00AM |
| Worship In Sanctuary | Sunday 10:30AM |

DRESS CODE

Dress however you please, Sunday best or a T-Shirt and Jeans, all are accepted.

SUMMARY

The 8:15am service is held in the chapel. The service has less standing and sitting, and caters to the older crowd. The 10:30 service is in the sanctuary for larger crowds of a younger generation. The attire is casual, with some wearing jeans and T-Shirts and some wearing business casual or dresses. The rule is to dress how you feel comfortable. Communion is served each Sunday and is open to all.

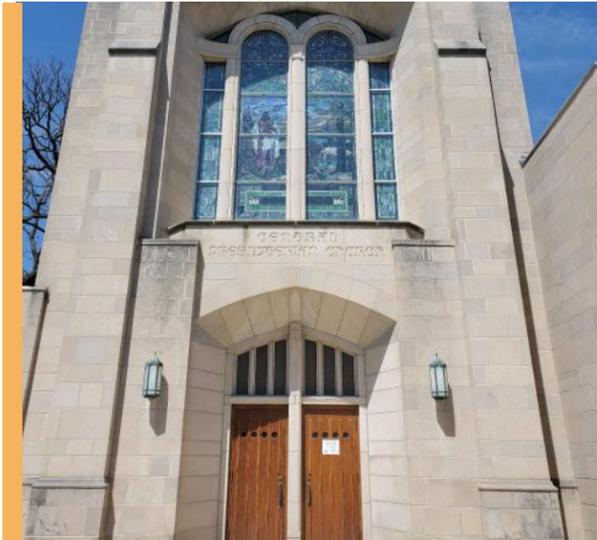

The church has large Latvian, Vietnamese, and South Sudanese refugee populations which are a large piece of its identity. Being a home to worship for immigrants and people from all different backgrounds makes the church stronger and more accepting.

HOURS

Sunday Worship Service 10:15AM

DRESS CODE

Dress however you please, Sunday best or a T-Shirt and Jeans, all are accepted.

COMMUNITY ETIQUETTE

The community observes the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter and Pentecost, with special services on Christmas Eve, Ash Wednesday and during Holy Week.

Presbyterians observe two sacraments. Communion is usually celebrated on the first Sunday of each month and on major feast days. At Central, all God's people are welcome to the table, young and old alike. Baptism is a sign of our incorporation into God's family. Baptisms are celebrated several times a year during the Sunday morning service. Please contact the pastor if you are interested in having your child baptized.

Childcare for children up to age five is provided each week in the nursery, located in the education wing on the first floor.

Our sanctuary is fully accessible to those in wheelchairs. Large-print bulletins and hymnals as well as personal hearing devices are available to those who need them. Please ask one of the hosts if you need any special accommodations.

- Remove shoes upon entering the temple
- Do not point outstretched legs toward the images of the deities or the priests
- Do not take photographs in the main worship hall.
- The temple hosts a variety of services; most, however, come to worship the deities outside of scheduled activities.
- It is traditional to walk around the main worship hall in clockwise motion, keeping the main deity (Balaji) on your right side.
- Wait until invited to dance, at the end of the service everyone will dance

Sathya Sai Center of Ames and Des Moines

COMMUNITY ETIQUETTE

- Dress modestly; no jeans or shorts. Remove shoes before entering. Seating is available on the floor or in chairs. Men and women sit on opposite sides of the room. Discipline and silence are given utmost importance in all programs and activities.
- The Sai Center conducts weekly devotional and educational meetings at a designated place (usually the address above—but check the website or reach out to the contact to be sure). Singers offer multi-faith songs as an offering of worship to the universal consciousness. The spiritual study circle is centered around reading and contemplation of the spiritual teachings of the founder, Shri Sathya Sai Baba.

Temple B'nai Jeshurun

COMMUNITY ETIQUETTE

- Temple B'nai Jeshurun, founded in 1873, was the first Jewish congregation to be established in Des Moines. Orthodox in observance at first, the congregation soon became a charter member of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, becoming the first Reform congregation in Iowa. B'nai Jeshurun means "children of righteousness." It is a poetic name for the Jewish people, often used in the Bible to designate the ideal character of Israel.
- The Temple still holds to the goals of its founders: to maintain a synagogue as a center of worship, religious education and communal gathering; to foster a "living Judaism" not only in the Temple, but also in the homes and lives of its members and their families; and to adjust the teachings and practices of old to the needs of each new generation of American Jews.
- Rich in years and distinguished in history, Temple B'nai Jeshurun maintains its dedication to the highest ideal of Judaism and to the strengthening and survival of the Jewish people.

First Unitarian Church of Des Moines

& Two Affiliate Groups: Covenant of Unitarian Universalist Pagans (Sacred Bridges Branch) & Humanist Society of Iowa

SUMMARY

The First Unitarian Church of Des Moines (UCDSM) is an inclusive religious community that encompasses people of all ages and identities from across central Iowa. In addition to Sunday services, religious education for the youth and special events for the church community are provided. Their basic principles are a reverence for life, a respect for the inherent dignity of each person, and a belief in human potential. The shared covenant supports “the free and responsible search for truth and meaning,” through their seven principles: shared experience, open and stirring worship services, religious education, rites of passage, social justice work, the quest to include the marginalized, and their expressions of love. Here you can find a welcoming community that hosts a vibrant group of religious seekers looking to increase opportunities for life enrichment, spiritual growth, and social justice. They encourage you to visit their website or come to a service to learn more.

SUMMARY

The Pagan religion is extremely fluid and diverse with respect to its interpretations of its practices, its lack of set rules or a book of worship, and the diversity of its honoring practice and other rituals. Still, several common themes are present in the Sacred Bridges branch, which identifies as an earth-centered spiritual group, where most of their practices revolve around nature and nature-related deities. Other common themes include the polytheism, in this case the worship of gods from Celtic, Egyptian, Greek, Norse, and Pagan roots, along with what is called The Devinei, which is a spirit that is in everyone and connects everyone.

Humanist Society of Iowa

SUMMARY

The Humanist Society is affiliated with the American Humanist Association sponsored by the First Unitarian Church. They refer to meetings as ‘book club’ where they discuss ideas and events. Humanists support a worldview in which reason and science are used to understand the world around us. Dignity and compassion should also be the basis of how you act towards others as Humanists affirm the dignity of every human being and assert that humanity is responsible for its own destiny.

SUMMARY

"We welcome all people in dignity and with love. If you are looking for an accepting community and a positive alternative to negative religious experience, we hope you feel at home at Unity of Des Moines. We take a positive approach to life, emphasizing the good in people and all of life's situations. Located on 31st Street just south of Grand, we invite you to Sunday service and to our many weekly activities, classes and groups. At our Sunday morning service you will find a thought-provoking message to spark your intellect, joy filled music to awaken your heart and a time of meditation to renew your soul, all of it woven through with humor and good nature. People from all walks of life and all religious traditions are invited to join us. As a congregation, we honor each person and the spiritual path which they follow."
